

The Bund

The Bund

The Bund is a colonial riverside lined with European-style architecture that reflects the grandeur of the old world. As the rest of the city transforms its landscape, the Bund's predominant art deco style buildings appears to have retained much of its old facade.

Take in the spectacularly futuristic, if not gaudy, view of the Lujiazui skyline on the opposite side of the Huangpu River from the Bund's promenade or the al fresco decks of the restaurants and bars nestled within and on the rooftops of historical buildings.
